

THE STAR ECO STATION CHILDREN'S EARTH DAY 2010

SUNDAY APRIL 25, 2010 10am-4pm

A Non-Profit Environmental Education and
The STAR ECO Station, a 501 (c)(3) charitable non-profit environmental education center and exotic wildlife rescue facility, is pleased to invite you to participate in our annual Children's Earth Day event at our unique facility. Throughout the day upwards towards twenty thousand people enjoy a fun and educational event that takes place at the STAR ECO Station in Culver City with the collaboration and participation of environmentalists, ECO "Living Green" Speakers, community organizations, ECO retailers, school groups, live stage show and community activists.

Participation and attendance grows each year and we anticipate even more growth this year as people look for informative and low-cost family activities. You will have exposure to thousands of new faces at our event.

Our vendors pay the STAR ECO Station for the cost of a booth space plus 10% of the sales made that day. All of these proceeds go to the STAR ECO Station to help care for our animals, maintain our museum, and towards our environmental children's programming.

and Exotic Wildlife Rescue Center
If you are interested, we encourage you to apply right away, as booth spaces go fast. All reservations made after March 12 increase by $15.00 and after April 16, 2010 increase an additional $30.00 to accommodate late registrants. Early registrants are included in a variety of web presence such as blogs, a myriad of social networks, print advertisements, and other kinds of public relations media.

We look forward to your participation in this event; please send your application form and payment by March 1, 2010. To reserve your booth space, to ask questions, or if you are interested in co-sponsoring the event, CONTACT MARLA WOLKOWITZ @ \(310\) 842-8060x112.
